

Serving Clients from Ethno-Cultural Groups with Mental Health and Addictions

What do you need to know to improve your client-centred care?

Beeing.ca is proud to present a 6-part webinar series for Executive Directors and Senior Management.

1.5 hour sessions ... from the comfort of your desk!

September — December 2010

Each session includes:

- A guest speaker or a panel (30 minutes)
- Question and Answer period (30 minutes)
- Time to network with colleagues, share resources, plan (30 minutes)

AGENDA

1. Introduction Panel, September 21
Aseefa Sarang, Executive Director, Across Boundaries; Steve Lurie, Executive Director, CMHA; Kwasi Kafele, MA, PhD(C), Director of Health Equity, CAMH; Mohamed Badsha, Program Director, Reconnect Mental Health Services
2. Race as a Social Determinant of Health, October 5
Kwame McKenzie M.D., MRC Psych Senior Scientist in Social Equity and Health Research Professor, Department of Psychiatry University of Toronto. Deputy Director, Schizophrenia Program Centre for Addiction & Mental Health
3. Making the Links Between Race, Trauma, and Addictions, October 19
Clarissa Chandler, Visual Artist and Trauma Specialist, "Co-creating respectful services, resources, systems, and communities"
4. Resettlement Stress: Linking Immigration to MH&A, November 23
Gulshan Allibhai, BWS, MSW
5. Cultural and Racial Impacts on MH&A Needs, December 7
Ann Pottinger, RN, MN
6. Culturally and Racially Inclusive MH&A Care, December 14
Martha Ocampo, RN Manager, Education & Resource, Across Boundaries

Registration closes March 26, 2010. Early bird rates until March 1, 2010.

Prices start @ $225 per person for the series.

Register today! Find out the difference awareness can make!

Interested CS organizations for whom the cost is prohibitive please contact Beeing.ca @ 647 726 0233 or education@beeing.ca.

Beeing.ca
Building
Equitable
Environments